

Dear Ray, Nancy and Ray of Hope Staff,

Do I like surprises? Without a shadow of a doubt, memorable surprises are one of my favorite things!

At the Rosary House, Wednesday, June 16, 2004, after we recited the rosary, you presented me with a very beautiful plaque for the inspirational messages that I post at the website. Debbie, although you were looking at me while thanking me for my efforts, I couldn't help wanting to turn around to see whom you were addressing. Truly, I never expected this thoughtful gesture and I'm very humbled.

Posting inspirational messages is how I personally reciprocate with Jesus and Mary for all of our blessings. I hope that these inspirational messages benefit at least one person, but I always pray that the messages encourage and spiritually strengthen everyone who reads them.

Besides the original weeping portrait of St. Ann and Our Blessed Mother, there are other religious paintings and statues weeping oil at the Rosary House. I am at a loss for words to describe the heavenly love that emanates from within the Rosary House. It is a genuine privilege to witness these miracles!

Ray and Nancy, I thank you for sharing the miraculous oil with everyone needing a physical or emotional healing. Debbie, Deeni and Greg, I thank you for your time and compassion and assisting Ray with this awesome mission.

Your companion in prayer,
Mary Sayad
